Letter To Editor

The Times-Virginian
Appomattox, Virginia

Dear Mr. Editor:

After reading Mr. William Hubbard's letter to the editor in last weeks paper concerning victory in Vietnam, I felt compelled to give the opinion of the majority of the younger generation. It is our generation in which is affected most by this was at it is the young men of my generation that are losing their lives in this unjust war.

Mr. Hubbard advocates victory but does he really have any conception of what he is saying? Already 47,000 Americans have been killed in Vietnam and what have we accomplished? Absolutely Nothing!! In fact there is not a single city or town in Vietnam that is secure from the Viet Cong if they want to enter. Americans must realize that we are in a totally different kind of war from the ones our fathers fought in and that this war is not like World War I and World War II, In this war your friendly Vietnamese civilian may be your enemy at night. I do not believe that there can ever be a total military victory in Southeast Asia and the ones advocating this are afraid to face the reality that this all-powerful nation of ours has finally entered a war which it cannot win.

I don't consider myself one of the silent majority nor do I agree with President Nixon's plan of a slow withdrawal of our troops from Vietnam. The best plan is an immediate withdrawal of all our troops. Let the Vietnamese decide for themselves what they want and let them fight their own war.

The United States cannot enter into every revolution that Communists are involved in. If this is the case we will soon have a massive land war not just in Vietnam but in Cambodia, Laos and even Thailand.

There are too many problems here in the United States that need to be solved if we are to continue living the kind of life we are used to, The problems of inflation, pollution and poverty must be met and with the enormous war budget we now have these problems cannot be solved.

Let's get out of Vietnam and Southeast Asia immediately and bring all our troops home alive before thousands more are killed needlessly. End the war and reduce our taxes and everyone will benefit, including Mr. Hubbard.

Census Takers Attend Training Sessions

Census takers who will visit every dwelling unit in the area during the 1970 Census of Population and Housing, which started April 1, were trained this week, District Manager, Barbara R. Aldridge announced today.

The training session were conducted by crewleaders. Emphasis was placed on the importance of a systematic, thorough canvass of every dwelling unit during the census to insure a complete count. Classroom training covered the proper manner of asking questions, use of the census questionnaire, census definitions, and map reading.

Map reading is an important census- taking technique, since without maps defining the limits of each enumeration district to which a census taker is assigned, the job would be a welter of confusion. Each census taker is provided a map of his enumeration district. As he makes his rounds, he will be required to canvass every street and road and visit every dwelling unit within the boundaries of his assigned district.

The Pastor Speaks

Parents With Wrong Values
Proverbs 22:6 "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Today too many people have a wrong set of values. They claim to want the best for their homes and their families, but their difficulty is that they have a wrong set of values--they need to meditate upon God's Word and get their values adjusted.

The parents who absent themselves from church in order to attend family reunions, visit "Aunt Minnie," have a picnic in the country, take their children on a short hike or campfire girls meeting, go fishing, have an outing to "commune with nature," attend a political rally or any other carnal thing that causes them to "absent themselves from the house of God" have a perverted sense of values. These things maybe good in their places and at the right times, but never should they put before ones faithfulness to God and the Church! When the "twig is bent" and the baby becomes a child and then an adult, it is "too late". Millions of parents in America mourn the broken heart over wayward daughters and prodical sons just because they would not pay the price for faithfulness when rearing them.

The following is a modern parable. Once, there was a little boy. When he was 3 weeks old, he was turned over to a baby-sitter. When he was 2 years old, he was given a cowboy suit and a pistol. When he was 3 years old, his parents laughed when he lisped a beer commercial. When he was six years old, his dad occasionally dropped him off at Sunday School on his way to the golf course. When he was 8 years old, they bought him a B.B. gun and taught him to shoot sparrows. He learned to shoot windsheids by himself. When he was 10 years old he spent his Sunday afternoons at the drugstore comic counter. His mother was gone and dad was busy. When he was 13 years old, his parents, wanting to be broad-minded, decided to let him come in at night when he saw fit.

When he was 15 years old, the police called his home one night. "We have your boy. He's in trouble."

"IN TROUBLE?" screamed his father. "It can't be MY boy!" But it was. Proverbs 22:6 "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

GOD BALL SECT MARS PENTECOST OBSERVANCE!

JERUSALEM, May 31 -- Pentecostal celebrations by Jerusalem's Jews were marred when a small but fanatical religious group caused a disturbance at a dwelling on the Street of Camels. The group was identified by police as disciples of Jesus the Nazarene who was executed at Golgotha following a similar disturbance during the Passover.

According to eyewitness reports, a meeting of the small group was in progress in an upper room of the house of Mary, the Tanner's Wife, Shortly before 9 a.m., neighbors heard a loud commotion in the dwelling, the sound of many voices, all speaking loudly at the same time.

Drunkenness Charged

Earliest reports indicated that the group had been drinking and many of the participants appeared to be intoxicated. The scene was one of great confusion, with many of the Nazarene's followers speaking in an incoherent fashion. An angry neighbor threatened to petition the Council, "It is a shameful thing for people to conduct themselves like this during the Feast (of Weeks)," he told reporters.

Other eyewitnesses, however, maintained that the Nazarene's disciples, many of them Galileans, were not speaking incoherently, but in various foreign tongues and dialects. Levi Ben-Shuria, a Parthian merchant who has made his home in Jerusalem for the past 15 years, said he heard one man speaking loudly in his native Parthian dialect, "I haven't heard my native tongue spoken since I left Parthia 15 years ago," said the amazed merchant.

Authorities Concerned

Several other foreign-born residents of Jerusalem told stories similar to that of Ben-Shuria. One, a baker originally from the Isle of Crete, insisted he heard several people speaking enthusiastically in his native tongue. Asked what these people were saying, the baker said: "They all seemed to be thanking and praising God for the wonderful things he has done. I never have heard such exhuberance."

Despite many reports similar to these, most Jerusalem officials discounted these stories, "Mass hysteria and too much new wine!" said one. Some observers pointed out that it was very unlikely that the Nazarene's followers would be speaking in various foreign languages, since these men, for the most part, are uneducated Galileans. "Drunken babblers, yes!" said one scribe, "But linguists? Definitely not!"

Rabbi Wiseman who lives near the scene of the disturbance voiced surprise when informed of it, "What these people have to celebrate is beyond me," he said to a reporter, "Their leader was executed and humiliated and their movement thoroughly discredited: that should have been the end of it." The popular Jerusalem rabbi added: "It may take several more crosses to finish this Nazarene thing once and for all." Other authorities were reported to be considering various repressive measures.

Crowd Still Undispersed

As this paper goes to press, it is reported that the crowd outside the building has still not been dispersed. Simon Peter, a fisherman from Capernaum, was reported addressing a large crowd, No advance copies of his remarks were available to members of the press.

ADVENTIST CHURCH
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 13
March 28, 1970
Subject: The Kingdom of Glory
Keytext: Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world, Matt. 25:34. The word kingdom is used with a variety of meanings in the New Testament in such expressions as "Kingdom of Christ – kingdom of God, and kingdom of heaven and glory." The meaning must be determined by the context. In this lesson the general meaning is the kingdom as the future home of the saints.

Key Thoughts – 1. The Kingdoms of Grace and Glory, Under the one we enter heaven, under the other we are immortalized. 2. Christ as King of Kings. Rev. 19:16, This title is also used of Christ as He comes forth to take possesion of the kingdom of this world. Rev. 11: 15, 19:16 and may be considered His Official title as king of the kingdom of glory. 3. The Throne of His Glory, Matt. 25: 31, "In times eternal Father and Son shared the throne of the universe," Patriarchs and Prophets, Page 36, At the ascension the Son was enthroned with the Father upon His throne. Rev. 3:21, Upon His return to earth He will be seated upon the throne of His own glory. Matt. 25:31.

Lesson Outline – Sun – Inauguration of the Kingdom. Rev. 19:11, 13, 16, Second Coming and His subjects, Matt. 25:31-34, Tues - Entrance Requirements. 2 Peter 1:10,11 We Fear The Fate of the Wicked, Matt. 13:40 - 43, Thursday –No More Sin, Rev. 21:2-4, Fri. Sunday – Endless Life in a Perfect World Rev. 22:3-5.

In 2 Peter 1:10,11 we read, "Wherefore the rather, brethern, give diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall." How can we be diligent in seeking blamelessness? As your soul yearns after God, you will find more and more of the unsearchable riches of His grace, as you contemplate these riches you will come into possession of them and will reveal the merits of the Saviour's sacrifice, the protection of His righteousness the fullness of His wisdom, and His power to present you before the throne of His glory, pure, and blamless. The Acts of the Apostles, pg.567. Verse 11 says "For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

Rev. 22:3-5 gives us a picture of the Endless Life in a perfect world, and there shall be no more curses but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it: and His servants shall serve Him. And they shall see His face; and His name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle neither light of the sun, for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.

Think it through – Am I prepared to be a citizen of that New Kingdom?

Sabbath School - 9:30 a.m.
Worship Service – 11 a.m.
